

of the corporation, and may appoint a collector to collect the same and prescribe his term of office, responsibility and compensation; and the said collector shall have the same power to distrain for said taxes as the collectors of county taxes have, and shall pay the same when collected to the said Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 6, sec. 46. 1860, Art. 6, sec. 41

36. They may annually appoint a bailiff, who shall preserve the health and good order of the town, and for that purpose shall have all the powers of a constable, and who shall give bond to the County Commissioners as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 6, sec. 47. 1860, Art. 6, sec. 42.

37. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the said corporation shall be recoverable as small debts.

BRIDGES.

DOVER BRIDGE.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 6, sec. 106. 1865, ch. 128.

38. The inhabitants of Caroline County shall have the privilege of passing over Dover Bridge, being the bridge across Choptank River at Dover Ferry, with their vehicles, carriages, wagons, carts, horses, mules, oxen, cattle, sheep, hogs, and all other property, free from toll or exaction of any kind.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 6, sec. 107. 1865, ch. 128.

39. The County Commissioners are required to levy and pay annually the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to the person who may have charge of said bridge, for the purpose of keeping it, and the causeway leading to it, in repair, and to compensate the person who may attend the draw thereof.

1894, ch. 548, sec. 1. 1900, ch. 183, sec. 1.

40. The County Commissioners of Caroline and Talbot Counties, a majority of each board concurring, shall have full power and authority to construct, maintain and keep in safe repair a draw-bridge over the Choptank River, between Caroline and Talbot Counties, at the place known as Dover Bridge, with the opening in the draw at least sixty feet wide; and said County Commissioners of Caroline and Talbot Counties, a majority of each board concurring, shall have full power and authority to make reasonable rules and regulations for the use of said bridge, known as Dover Bridge by the public, and for the protection of said bridge and other property belonging thereto or therewith, and to enforce the observance of said rules and regulations by imposing upon any person or persons violating the same any reasonable fine, not exceeding ten dollars, for any