105. They are authorized and directed to appropriate annually, and pay over to the town commissioners of the several incorporated towns in the county, a sum of money in their judgment sufficient to assist in improving and repairing the road-beds of said towns.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 6, sec. 58. 1882, ch. 214. 1916, ch. 457.

106. They are further authorized and empowered to make and effect temporary loans for the use of said county upon notes or drafts signed by them, or a majority of them, and countersigned by the clerk, with the seal of office, for sums in all not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, payable with interest in less time than six months from the date thereof; and they shall levy annually upon the assessable property of the county, taxes sufficient to satisfy the said loans, or satisfy annually the same from taxes and money collectable and due.

107. They are authorized and empowered to issue bonds in renewal of such bonds as may be satisfactorily transferred or assigned; and in the event of satisfactory evidence of the loss and destruction of any bond outstanding, and ample security approved by them to save them harmless from any loss on account thereof, they may issue a duplicate bond in the place thereof; and in all renewals they shall endorse the number and date of the original bond.

1920, ch. 722. 1922, ch. 457.

108. Before any deed for the conveyance of real estate in Caroline County shall be received for record by the Clerk of the Circuit Court thereof, the person offering said deed for record shall submit the same to the Clerk of the County Commissioners of said county, who shall thereupon make transfer on the County Assessment Books of the said property to the name of the new owners thereof, and as evidence of said transfer, shall stamp upon the said deed his certificate thereof, and no deed shall be received for record without said certificate. At the time of submitting the deed to the Clerk of the County Commissioners, the person or persons offering the same shall furnish said clerk with a statement of the buildings, if any, upon the land conveyed by said deed, and the price paid for the property. If any deed is received by the Clerk of the Court through the mails or accepted by him which has not said certificate attached or stamped thereon, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Court to present said deed to the Clerk of the County Commissioners to have it certified before recording the same. The Clerk of the Circuit Court of Caroline
