

lay out, extend, widen, grade or straighten any street, alley, or highway or any square, waterway or drain, notwithstanding the decision of said court; but in case of refusal so to do they shall be liable for all costs incurred, and shall pay the same, all benefits assessed by virtue of the above provisions shall be liens on the respective lots or parcels of ground on which they are assessed from the time of the final ratification of the aforesaid return, and shall be collected as taxes are collected, or may be collected by action at law. On appeal the court or jury may alter the award so returned, whether of damages or benefits, and award costs in its discretion. On final ratification of any report of the assessors appointed under the provisions of this section, the secretary to the Commissioners shall at once record in a book kept for that purpose the said return, plat and all proceedings connected therewith. And if for any reason the person to whom damages are awarded refuses to receive the damages assessed, or from infancy or any other cause are prevented from receiving and receipting for same, the damages so assessed shall be deposited in some bank of Caroline County, paying interest on deposits, if any, to the credit of the person entitled to such damages, and thereupon the Commissioners of Denton, may proceed in the same way as if said damages had been paid to the person or persons themselves.

1916, ch. 692, sec. 95A.

149. The Commissioners of Denton are hereby authorized and empowered, whenever in their judgment the public interests and conveniences require it, to pass ordinances for the improvement of the public streets in said town, to establish grades for said streets, to prescribe the material of which said streets shall be built or improved and to assess the cost and expense thereof a sum not to exceed fifty (50) cents per lineal foot upon the owner or owners of the abutting property, whether same be owned by an individual, firm, corporation or by Caroline County, which said cost and expense as assessed by said Commissioners of Denton shall be due and payable within ten days after said streets shall have been completed, built or improved along said abutting property and said costs and expense as assessed aforesaid shall be a lien upon said abutting property, and interest shall be chargeable on said assessment from the time same is due and payable, and all assessments that are not paid when due aforesaid shall be collectible by an action at law.

150. All able-bodied male citizens residing in the town of Denton, twenty-one years of age and over, shall be compelled to labor one day of ten hours in every year on the public streets of said town; provided, however, no person shall be required to labor as aforesaid who may furnish a substitute or pay to the bailiff the sum of one dollar in lieu of said labor, and any person who shall refuse to obey the summons of the bailiff for labor on the public streets shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon complaint made by the bailiff, shall be arrested and taken before a Justice of the Peace for Caroline County, upon a warrant to be issued by
