

1922, ch. 73, sec. 9.

437. The Mayor and Commissioners of Luke, during the month of May, in each year, have power to levy an equal tax on the property within the limits of said town or which have a situs there by reason of the residence of the owner therein, to such an amount each year, not exceeding the sum of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of property, as may be deemed necessary for the expenses of said town, which said taxes so levied and assessed shall be collected promptly by the clerk of said town and by him accounted for as collected at the end of each and every month; and the said taxes shall be a lien from the time of levy against the property assessed and enforceable and collected by the clerk in the same manner as the Collector of Public County Taxes collects such taxes. All such taxes levied as aforesaid shall be due and demandable on the last day of December of the year levied, and thereafter until paid shall bear interest at six per cent. per annum, but if paid on or before that date the Mayor and Commissioners can allow such discount thereon as they shall determine each year as proper. And the said The Mayor and Commissioners may appoint three persons, citizens of said town, to assess and value all property located within said corporate limits or taxable therein and shall pass all ordinances necessary to prescribe the duties and powers of said assessors; provided, however, that the assessment for municipal purposes shall not exceed the assessment for State and county purposes, or the said Mayor and Commissioners may accept for said assessment purposes the value placed upon the property within said town for State and county taxation.

438. Henry O. Failing and Patrick J. O'Brien be and they are hereby appointed registrars to hold the first registration of voters under this Act, prior to the election of the first town officials, provided for in this Act, and that during the month of August, after the passage of this Act, they shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place at which all qualified voters of said town may be registered. The said notice shall be given by handbills posted in at least five public places in said town. And the said officers of registration shall take oath before some justice of the peace of Allegany County to permit every qualified voter to register and none other, and upon the completion of the registry of votes, the officers herein named shall give the judges of election a list of the names so registered.

439. Thomas Haywood, William Wright and O. P. Maxwell be and they are hereby appointed judges of election to hold the first election under this Act for the first town officials, and at least ten days before the first Monday of October, 1922, they shall give notice that the election shall be held and the time and place thereof by handbills posted in at least five public places in said town, at which election all persons qualified as provided in this Act shall be entitled to vote for one person for Mayor and
