

him of the violation of any ordinances of said corporation, he shall issue warrant or process in the name of the Mayor and Council of Federalsburg directed to one of the policemen of said corporation or one of the Constables of Caroline County or to the Sheriff of Caroline County for the arrest of the party offending or to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such ordinances, and he shall hear and determine the matter in controversy as in any case arising under the law of this State, and shall receive the same fees therefor.

210. In default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by the said Justice of the Peace for the violation of any ordinance of the said Mayor and Council of Federalsburg, the said Justice of the Peace may commit the party offending to the Caroline County jail for the time prescribed by said ordinance, or in the event said ordinance omits to prescribe the fine or time, may impose a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and in default of its payment may commit the party to the Caroline County jail for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, or may impose both fine and imprisonment in his discretion, and the Sheriff of said County shall receive and confine the person so committed in the same manner as other prisoners, provided, that any person so fined or committed to jail shall have the right to take an appeal to the Circuit Court for Caroline County within ten days from the date of trial and may upon entering into his recognizance with sufficient surety for his appearance to Court be released from legal custody pending the hearing of his appeal.

211. The Mayor and Council of Federalsburg shall have the power to pass ordinances and make by-laws providing for the construction, extension, maintenance and operation of sanitary sewerage and storm water drainage systems and to assess the costs and expense thereof in whole or in part upon the owner or owners of the abutting property, which costs and expenses for said improvements shall be a lien upon the abutting property and shall be collectible in the same manner as other town taxes are now collectible in the town of Federalsburg as prescribed by law.

212. The Mayor and Council of Federalsburg shall have the power to pass ordinances and to make by-laws, to establish grades for the streets, gutters and sidewalks of said town and the width thereof, and prescribe the material of which they shall be built; to cause the sidewalks along the said public streets and the road beds of all the public streets to be graded, curbed, paved and repaved or improved, and to assess the costs and expense thereof in whole or in part upon the owner or owners of the abutting property, which costs and expense for said improvements shall be a lien upon the abutting property and shall be collectible in the
