

1906, ch. 87, sec. 34.

272. The said Commissioners may, in their discretion, exempt and release from assessment or taxation any public improvements, and all machinery, plant and property used in manufacturing for a period not exceeding five years, unless the qualified voters of the town of Goldsboro shall, at an election when the question of such exemption for a longer period than five years is submitted to them, cast a majority of votes in favor of such exemption for such longer period; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall discriminate against any existing enterprise in favor of a like enterprise accepting the provisions of this Act.

1906, ch. 87, sec. 36.

273. The said Commissioners shall, at least once a year, publish in some newspaper published in said town, or post in at least four public places in said town, a full account of moneys received by them for the year preceding the date of such account and an itemized statement of all disbursements made by them during the same time; and said account and statement of receipts and disbursement shall be sworn to by at least one Commissioner.*

GREENSBORO.†

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 6, sec. 147. 1870, ch. 144. 1906, ch. 284, sec. 2.

274. The inhabitants of the town of Greensboro, in Caroline County, are a body corporate, by the name of the Commissioners of Greensboro, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any of the courts of this State, and may acquire by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, any land or property, or any interest therein, upon which to erect any market house, lock-up, office or any other building or buildings, which in the judgment of the said Commissioners may be necessary for the use of the said corporation, and the establishment or enlargement of parks, squares and gardens, and for opening, extending, widening or straightening any street, lane or alley in said town; and may hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, in their discretion; and may have and use a common seal which may be altered by them at pleasure. All property and funds of every kind belonging to or in possession of the town of Greensboro are vested in said corporation, and the said corporation may receive in trust and may control for the purpose of such trust all money or other property which may have been or shall be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed or any other form of gift or conveyance in trust for any general

*Sec. 38 of ch. 87, 1906, repealed all Acts inconsistent therewith.

†Ch. 53, 1929, authorized the town to issue $20,000 of bonds for redeeming outstanding bonds, sewerage facilities and fire department building and to levy taxes to pay interest on and to redeem said bonds.
