

of their board and appoint a secretary and treasurer, who may be the same person, a bailiff, and such number of under-bailiffs at any time as they may deem necessary to properly preserve the peace and good order of said town, and they may at such time or such other times as they may deem proper appoint such other officer or employes as they may deem necessary for the interests of said town.

283. If at any time an election shall not be held for Commissioners on the day mentioned in Section 276 of this Article, an election may be held at any time after ten days' notice thereof shall have been given by the Commissioners or a majority of them, and in case a majority of the said Commissioners shall become disqualified to act or shall have failed or shall fail to hold an election for the space of thirty days after the said fourth Monday in April in any year, then it shall be lawful for any three or more of the qualified voters in said town to give notice either by written or printed handbills or by publication in some newspaper printed in said town, of an election to be held on a certain day at least ten days from the date of publication or posting of such notice for Commissioners of Greensboro, and a majority of the qualified voters present at the hour fixed by such notice for the commencement of said election shall select three judges to hold the same.

284. The president of said Board of Commissioners shall preside at all meetings, unless prevented by sickness or reasonable cause, and in his absence the remaining Commissioners may select a president pro tempore; he shall sign all by-laws and ordinances of said Board of Commissioners, and shall countersign all orders, drafts and checks drawn by the secretary or treasurer under the direction of said Commissioners.

285. All officers appointed by the said Commissioners shall be selected from among the citizens of said town qualified to vote for Commissioners, and shall before entering upon their duties make oath before said Commissioners, or any one of them, or before a justice of the peace or notary public for Caroline County, that he will well and faithfully perform the duties of his office as now prescribed or as may hereafter be prescribed by law or ordinance, to the best of his skill and judgment.

286. The treasurer shall, within thirty days from the date of his appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond to the State of Maryland, with surety or sureties, to be approved by said Commissioners in the penalty of five hundred dollars, or in such penalty over that amount not exceeding one thousand dollars, as the Commissioners shall prescribe, conditioned that he will well and faithfully account for all moneys paid over to him by the bailiff of said corporation, or that may be
