

hereby continued until changed or repealed respectively by the General Assembly of Maryland or the Commissioners of Hillsborough.

1914, ch. 731, sec. 182M.

339. All officers provided for or named in the Charter of Hillsborough or any amendments thereto, as it now stands before the passage of this Act, whether by election or appointment, shall continue to hold, exercise and discharge the duties of their respective offices until their successors shall be duly qualified and nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to interfere with the continuity of the terms of or tenure of said officers; nor shall the reappointment or re-election of any of said officers be necessary in order to secure the said continuity of their said terms and tenures of office unless otherwise provided in this Act.

1914, ch. 731, sec. 182N.

340. Any suit, action, or proceeding now pending shall not abate by reason of the passage of this Act.

1914, ch. 731, sec. 182-O.

341. Each section of this Act and every part of each section are hereby declared to be independent sections, and the holding of any section or sections or part or parts thereof to be void, ineffective or unconstitutional for any cause shall not be deemed to affect any other section or part thereof.

JURORS.

1890, ch. 28, sec. 1.

342. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the County Commissioners of Caroline County, to make out and file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county between the fifteenth day of May and the first day of June next ensuing, and every second year thereafter, a full and complete list, alphabetically arranged in the order of election districts, of the taxable male residents of said county whose names appear on the tax books thereof and who are not known to the said clerk of the county commissioners to be under the age of twenty-five years; and to said list so to be made and filed the said clerk of the county commissioners shall append a certificate that said list is fully and fairly made, and for making such list the clerk shall receive such compensation as the county commissioners shall deem right and proper, and for failure to perform the duty hereby imposed the said clerk of the county commissioners shall forfeit and pay to the State a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court, to be recovered by indictment as for a misdemeanor and shall be thenceforth incapable of holding position of clerk to county commissioners.

1890, ch. 28, sec. 2.

343. It shall be the duty of the judges of the Circuit Court for said county or any one of them, not less than fifteen days before the beginning
