

and bagatelle tables kept for public use; to license dogs and provide for the killing of those going at large unlicensed; to regulate the inspection and sale of milk, vegetables and all other foods and all weights and measures. They may pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out the foregoing provisions, and enforce the observation of all ordinances by fines, penalties and forfeitures not exceeding one hundred dollars in any one case, or by imprisonment not exceeding sixty days in the jail of Caroline County, provided that no greater sum than one hundred dollars be charged for any one license.

1914, ch. 833, sec. 17.

442. The Commissioners shall have power to select any justice of the peace in the Fourth Election District of Caroline County to serve as police judge and said judge selected as aforesaid is hereby given jurisdiction to try, hear and determine all offenses and acts committed in disregard of the ordinances of the Commissioners and upon complaint made before him of the violation of any ordinance of said corporation he shall issue process in the name of the Commissioners of Preston, directed to the bailiff, constable or sheriff of Caroline County to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such ordinance or the arrest of the party offending, and he shall hear and determine the matter in controversy as in any case arising under the laws of this State and shall receive the same fee therefor.

1914, ch. 833, sec. 18.

443. In default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by said justice of the peace, for the violation of any ordinance of the said Commissioners, the said justice of the peace may commit the party offending to the county jail of Caroline County for the time prescribed by said ordinance, or in the event said ordinance omits to prescribe the fine or time, may impose a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars and in default of its payment may commit the party to the county jail for a period not exceeding sixty days, or may impose both fine and imprisonment in his discretion, and the sheriff of said county shall receive and confine the person so committed in the same manner as other prisoners, provided that any person so fined or committed to jail shall have the right to take an appeal to the Circuit Court for Caroline County within ten days from the date of trial and may upon entering into his recognizance with sufficient surety for his appearance to Court be released from legal custody.

1914, ch. 833, sec. 19.

444. Said Commissioners may, whenever they may deem it necessary, borrow money on the credit of said town, by note or otherwise any amount they may deem necessary, provided that said indebtedness, thus created, shall not exceed at any time the sum of three thousand dollars.