

REGISTER OF WILLS.

1898, ch. 466.

473. The Register of Wills for Caroline County is hereby authorized and required to prepare and make a general index of the will record books in his office, and shall carefully compare the names embraced in such index with all the wills of record therein.

1898, ch. 466.

474. The County Commissioners of Caroline County are hereby authorized and required to levy upon the assessable property of said county as other county charges are levied, a sum sufficient to pay the said register of wills three cents for each name entered in said general index; and also to pay the costs of a well bound and suitable book for the purpose.

1898, ch. 466.

475. The Orphans' Court of Caroline County is hereby authorized and empowered to direct the rebinding, repair and titling of any of the books in the office of the said register of wills, which have or may, by reason of age or use become defaced or injured; and also to direct the register to copy any book index, which may be worn or unsuited for use, and the County Commissioners of Caroline County are hereby authorized and required to levy upon the assessable property of said county, as other county charges are levied, a sum sufficient to pay all costs and expenses incurred on account of said work and services.

RIDGELY.

1896, ch. 178, sec. 1.

476. The inhabitants of the Town of Ridgely in Caroline County, are hereby created a body corporate, by the name of the Commissioners of Ridgely, with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, and by that name may sue and be sued, may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and the said corporation may organize, proceed and act through its Commissioners to be selected as hereinafter provided.

1896, ch. 178, sec. 2.

477. Said corporation may receive in trust and may control, for the purpose of such trusts, all money or other property which may be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed or in any other form of gift or conveyance for any general corporation purpose or in aid of the indigent and poor or for charitable purpose within said village; and the said corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property which may be hereafter acquired by said village, having first given public notice of such lease or sale in one
