

inviolably dedicated to the payment of the interest and principal of said bond issue as well as to the maintenance of the said water works; said tax to be levied and collected as other taxes for said town are levied and collected.

1904, ch. 276, sec. 37.

512. The Commissioners of Ridgely are hereby authorized and empowered to negotiate, sell or dispose of the bonds hereinbefore provided for as many thereof as they shall deem proper, and with the proceeds thereof to erect or provide for the erection, building, maintaining and keeping in repair said water works; provided, however, that no bonds shall be sold or disposed of for less than their par value; and the said Commissioners of Ridgely are furthermore fully authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations and to pass all necessary ordinances, with penalties for their violation, and to do all other necessary acts for the proper managing, maintaining and repairing of said water works and for the protection thereof, and to condemn all lands necessary for the erection and operating of said water works and the plant thereof, which condemnation shall be had in the manner provided for the opening of streets in said town.

513. The Commissioners of Ridgely are hereby authorized and empowered to construct such system of sewers and sewage disposal works in accordance with any plan now or that may hereafter from time to time be adopted as may seem to them necessary to meet the requirements of the town and to protect the health of its citizens.

1912, ch. 578, sec. 40.

514. For the purpose of meeting the cost for the construction and installation of the system of sewers and sewage disposal works, as aforesaid, the Commissioners of Ridgely are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to issue registered bonds in the name of the Commissioners of Ridgely in sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) each, to be numbered from one to forty consecutively, and payable as follows: Number one to twenty-three, inclusive, will be due and payable five years from the date of issue, and thereafter each bond shall mature and be paid each consecutive year from the maturity of bond number twenty-three in the order of their consecutive numbers. Said bonds to be signed by the President and Secretary of the said Commissioners of Ridgely, attested by the seal of the said Commissioners of Ridgely, to the amount of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing and installing a system of sewers and disposal works. Said bonds shall bear interest at not more than five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, in each and every year, and
