93. All licenses to sell spirituous and fermented liquors shall expire on the first day of May next ensuing the date of their issue, and shall be issued for twelve or any less number of months, but for no fractional part of a month.

1908, ch. 252, sec. 54C (p. 688).

94. No license shall be issued to any person or persons to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Carroll County aforesaid until he or they shall comply with the following conditions, viz: a petition shall be filed by him or them on or before the first day of the month preceding the month said license is to begin with the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, addressed to said clerk, requesting that such license be issued; and said clerk shall thereupon cause to be published for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in said county, prior to the 15th day of the month preceding the month said license is to begin, a list of the names of all such applications, their residence, and the proposed place of doing business under said license, for which said application is made, and shall state in said notice that unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the fifteenth day of said month the license applied for will be issued, and at the time of filing said petition two dollars shall be paid to said clerk for the publication of said notice. In said petition shall be stated: (1) The name or names and residence of the applicant or applicants, age, place of birth, that he or they are citizens of the United States, and if a naturalized citizen, when and where naturalized, and how long he or they have resided in said county. (2) The particular place for which the license is desired, designating the same by streets and number, if practicable, and if not, by such other apt description as will definitely locate it. (3) The name of the owner or owners of the premises upon which the business, if licensed, is to be carried on, and the character of the holding of the proposed licensee. (4) Whether or not the applicant or applicants or either of them, has had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors revoked, and if so, when and for what offense; whether or not the applicants, or either of them, have been convicted of any crime within two years preceding the filing of his petition, and if so, for what offense; and that no person (unless the applicant) whose license has been revoked under the provisions of this Act, has any interest in the business to be carried on under the license thereby applied for, nor will the applicant or applicants permit any such person or persons to acquire any such interest during the existence of said license. (5) That he or they will not sell or allow to be sold in said house or on said premises any
