

minor or person under the age of twenty-one years in the prosecution of any person for selling or furnishing any spirituous or fermented liquors to him shall not be used in any prosecution against said minor under the provisions of this section.

1908, ch. 252, sec. 54-O (p. 694).

106. Any person, not a licensee who shall knowingly procure for an habitual drunkard, or any person of intemperate habits, any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court; any person (excepting parent or guardian) not a licensee, who shall procure, sell, furnish or give to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. Any licensee who permits minors to frequent, loiter or loaf about his place of business, or disreputable, or disorderly persons to make it a customary place of visitation or resort, shall be deemed guilty of maintaining a nuisance, and upon indictment and conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, and his license shall be revoked by the court, and the same person or persons shall not again be granted a license under the provisions of this Act within two years from the time of such revocation.

1908, ch. 252, sec. 54P (p. 694).

107. Any person or persons having a license under the provisions of this Act, who shall hereafter be convicted of violating any of its provisions or of doing or omitting to do any act that is prohibited or directed by it to be done shall, unless otherwise specially provided herein, for the first offense be subject to a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned; and the court may also in all cases in addition to the penalties provided in its discretion suppress his license for such period as it deems proper. And upon a second conviction for the violation of any provision of this Act, he or they shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the jail of Carroll County for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court; and in all cases of second conviction, his or their license shall be revoked.

1908, ch. 252, sec. 54Q (p. 695).

108. Any person or persons holding a license issued under the provisions of this Act may assign the unexpired term thereof; provided, that said assignee shall comply with all the requirements and provisions
