

dences when not used as or made a place of public resort, to persons above the age of 21 years, who are not habitual drunkards or persons of known intemperate habits.

If any person shall be convicted of violating any provision of this Act and shall subsequently violate any provision of this Act he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and be imprisoned in the jail or House of Correction for not more than two years.

And in like manner if he shall subsequently violate any provisions of this section, for such third and each subsequent violations he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not more than five (5) years.

State's Attorneys and Justices of the Peace having knowledge of any previous conviction of any persons accused of violating the provisions of this section; in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments, shall allege such previous conviction therein; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Carroll County to furnish information concerning such prior conviction to the State's Attorney and grand jury.

A certified transcript from the docket of any justice of the peace, or a certified copy of the record under the seal of the clerk of any court shall be sufficient evidence of a previous conviction or convictions under any section of this Act. It shall be sufficient, in such presentment or indictment to allege briefly that such person has been convicted of a violation or violations of the provisions of this section.

1914, ch. 492, sec. 14. 1916, ch. 340, sec. 14.

127. The giving away, delivery or handling of any intoxicating liquor by any storekeeper or at any place of business, or at any private residence or other place used or made a place of public resort or the taking or soliciting of orders, either in person or by letter or printed circulars through the mails or otherwise, or the making of agreements within the limits of Carroll County while the same is Anti-Saloon Territory, for the sale or delivery or future giving away of any intoxicating liquor, or any other shift or device to evade any provision of this Act, shall be held to be unlawful selling.

1914, ch. 492, sec. 15.

128. All places where intoxicating liquor is sold in violation of any provisions of this Act, shall be taken and held and are declared to be common nuisances and may be abated as such; and it shall be part of the judgment, upon the conviction of the keeper, that the place where liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this Act be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond, with sufficient security to be approved by the court, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), payable to the State of Maryland, conditioned that he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof; and in the case of a violation of the condi-