

tion of such bond suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of said County for any fine or fines that may be assessed against him under this Act.

1914, ch. 492, sec. 16.

129. The County Commissioners of Carroll County are hereby authorized to use any part of the fines collected for the violation of this Act for hiring detectives or secret service officers to secure the enforcement of the same. And when there are no funds available from fines collected for the violation of this Act such County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appropriate not more than two hundred dollars ($200) annually from the general revenue fund for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act.

Crown v. State, 130 Md. 364.

1914, ch. 492, sec. 17.

130. Any Supervisor of Elections, Judge of Election, Police Officer or other officer of the law, who shall wilfully refuse or neglect or fail to discharge any duty imposed by this Act, and any one who signs a petition provided for in this Act, knowing that he is not qualified to do so, or who files with the Supervisors of Elections any such petition or any sheet or part thereof knowing that it contains the signature of a person not qualified to sign the same, or who receives, requests or demands or gives, offers or promises any reward for the signing or the refraining from signing of any such petition, or who by treating or giving intoxicating liquor or anything else, of the same or a different kind, or by threats to injure another in person or property, or by betting or other device, either directly or indirectly influences or attempts to influence any one, to sign or refrain from signing any such petition, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) or imprisoned in the County Jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or be both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court. If any person shall be convicted of violating any provision of this section and shall subsequently violate any provision of this section, for such second and each subsequent violation he shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) and imprisoned in the County jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days.

131. It shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician to issue a prescription for intoxicating liquor, except in writing, or in any case unless the person for whom it is issued is actually sick or such liquor is required as a medicine. Every prescription for intoxicating liquor shall contain the name and quantity of liquor prescribed, the name of the person for whom prescribed, the date on which the prescription is written and direction for the use of the liquor so prescribed.
