

And it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician who has been convicted of issuing verbal prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, or of issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquor knowing the same to be for use as a beverage, or of issuing prescriptions that do not in form comply with this Act, thereafter to issue any prescription for intoxicating liquor for any purpose for a period of two years from the date of such conviction. Every prescription issued in violation of the provisions hereof shall be held to be unlawful selling, and on conviction therefor the person issuing same shall be punished accordingly.

132. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to forbid or prevent the sale within Anti-Saloon Territory by a druggist or pharmacist of liquor for medicinal or sacramental purposes only, or of alcohol for medicinal, chemical or mechanical purposes only, not to be drunk upon the premises under any circumstances. Provided, the following requirements are fully complied with and such druggist or pharmacist in good faith shall keep a true and exact record in a book, which he shall provide for the purpose in which shall be entered at the time of every sale of intoxicating liquor made by him or in or about his place of business to all persons whomsoever, the date of such sale, the name of the purchaser, who shall also sign his name in said book as a part of said entry, and his residence (stating the street and house number if there be such) the kind, quantity and price of such liquor, the purpose for which it was sold and when the sale is for medicinal purposes, the book shall also contain the name of the physician issuing the prescription therefor. Such prescription shall be cancelled by writing on it the words "cancelled" and the date on which it was presented and filled and kept on file. No prescription shall be filled a second time. Such book shall be in form substantially as follows:

Date	Name of Purchaser	Residence	Kind and Quantity	Purpose of Use	Price	Name of Physician	Signature of Purchaser and the book and all such prescriptions before provided for shall be open to inspection by any State's Attorney, Justice of the Peace having criminal jurisdiction, Judge of any court, or any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal or other Police Officer. Any druggist or pharmacist who shall fail to keep such record or shall fail or refuse to make any entry therein required by law, or shall destroy or alter or change in any way such record or any entry therein or any prescription, or permit or procure the same to be destroyed, altered or changed, or shall fail to cancel any such prescription, or shall refill any prescription, or shall sell intoxicating liquors for medicinal purposes except on written prescription, or for sacramental purposes.
