

without an order signed by clergymen, shall for each sale in violation of the provisions of this section be deemed guilty of unlawful selling and on conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a sale by such druggist of such liquor as may be needed by or for a sick person in case of extreme illness, where delay may be dangerous to the patient.

It shall be unlawful for any druggist or pharmacist who has been convicted of selling intoxicating liquor in violation of this Act thereafter to sell intoxicating liquor for any purpose, personally or by agent, for two (2) years in any Anti-Saloon Territory, and upon a second conviction for violating the provisions of this Act any such druggist or pharmacist shall have his certificate to practice pharmacy revoked, and the Justice of the Peace or Judge before whom such druggist or pharmacist is convicted of a second violation of this Act shall so order and send a copy of such order to the Commissioners of Pharmacy upon receipt of which such certificate shall forthwith be revoked by such Commissioners of Pharmacy and shall not be renewed within one (1) year from the date of such revocation.

133. It shall be unlawful for any person or public or private carrier to knowingly accept or receive for shipment, transportation or delivery to any person or place within an Anti-Saloon Territory, or to carry, bring into, transfer, to any other person, carrier or agent, handle, deliver or distribute in any Anti-Saloon Territory, any intoxicating liquor regardless of the name by which it may be called, and whoever shall, by himself or another, either as principal, clerk, agent or servant, knowingly violate any of the provisions of this section, shall upon conviction therefor be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and upon conviction of any subsequent violation of this section in addition to such fine shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than six (6) months; provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to individuals who may bring into any Anti-Saloon Territory, upon their person or as to their personal baggage and for their private use such liquors in quantity not to exceed one gallon nor to physicians nor druggists to whom any public carrier may deliver such liquor in unbroken packages, in quantity not to exceed five gallons at any one time; nor to deliveries to churches or the proper officers thereof of wine in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes; nor to shipments of liquor in continuous transit to a point outside of such Anti-Saloon Territory.

This section shall apply to all packages of intoxicating liquor whether broken or unbroken. Each package of intoxicating liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called, accepted, received, transferred, handled, delivered or distributed in violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute a separate offense
