Crown v. State, 130 Md. 364

1914, ch. 492, sec. 24.

138. That any five (5) legal voters of Carroll County in which an election shall have been held as provided for in this Act may, within ten (10) days after the canvass of the returns of such election and upon filing a bond for costs in a penalty to be fixed by the presiding judge, and with a surety or sureties to be approved by him, contest the validity of such election by filing a verified petition in the Circuit Court of Carroll County setting forth the grounds for the contest. Upon the filing of such petition a summons shall forthwith issue from such court, addressed to the Supervisors of Elections with whom a petition for such election was filed, notifying such Supervisors of Elections of the filing of such petition and directing them to appear in such court on behalf of said county at the time named in the summons, which time shall be not less than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) days after the filing of such petition. The procedure in such cases shall be the same as that provided by law for contesting an election to a public office, so far as the same is applicable. The said court shall have final jurisdiction to hear and determine the merits of such cases. Any legal voter in Carroll County may be permitted by the court at its discretion to appear in person or by attorney in any such contested election case in defense of the validity of such election.

1929, ch. 569, sec. 25.

139. All vehicles, equipment, materials and paraphernalia used or employed in the unlawful sale, manufacture or transportation of intoxicating liquor within Carroll County are hereby declared to be forfeited, and the Sheriff of Carroll County or any other officer therein seizing any intoxicating liquor and any such vehicles, equipment, materials or paraphernalia, shall immediately give a detailed notice of such seizure in some newspaper published in Carroll County warning all persons having an interest in such intoxicating liquor, vehicles, equipment, materials and paraphernalia, to file in the Circuit Court for Carroll County within twenty days from the date of such notice, a statement of any cause that he, she or they might have why the same should not be condemned and sold or destroyed. If no cause to the contrary be shown within the time limited in said notice, then such officer shall immediately destroy all such intoxicating liquor and stills or other materials or paraphernalia used solely for the unlawful manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquor, and all other vehicles, materials, equipment and paraphernalia shall thereafter be sold, after giving the usual notice, and the proceeds, after the payment of the cost of such notice and all costs of sale, including a commission to the officer making sale of 5 per cent., shall be paid over to the Treasurer of Carroll County for general County purposes.
