

1906, ch. 77, sec. 59F.

151. Every justice of the peace selected under this Act as police justice shall file with the County Commissioners of Carroll County, on the first Monday of the months of April, July, October and November of every year, on account verified by his oath or affirmation, of all fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by him under the laws of this State, or under any ordinance of the city of Westminster, which said account shall show the names of the parties, the fines and penalties imposed, together with the amount of costs and to whom the said costs were due; and the said police justice shall at the time of filing said account pay over to the said County Commissioners the amount of all fines, penalties, forfeitures, justice's and State's witnesses' costs so received by him, except the fines and costs for violation of the ordinances of the city of Westminster, which shall be paid by him to the parties entitled to receive the same; any failure to file said account as above required shall be cause for removal by the resident judge of the Circuit Court for said county and the selection of another justice of the peace to act as police justice in his place; and if said police justice shall fail to pay over to said County Commissioners all of said fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs collected by him at the time of or before the filing of said account he shall be deemed a defaulter and shall be proceeded against and punished in the manner prescribed by the Code of Public General Laws of this State in relation to defaulters.

1906, ch. 77, sec. 59G.

152. The justices of the peace so selected as police justice may be changed from time to time by the resident judge of the Circuit Court of Carroll County at his discretion, and any other justice of the peace of said seventh election district may be selected by him to perform the duties of the said police justice, in case of his removal, death or resignation from office.

1906, ch. 77, sec. 2.

153. All Acts, general or local, inconsistent herewith, except the provisions of Article 12 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Bastardy and Fornications" are hereby repealed in so far as they may conflict with this Act.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 60. 1874, ch. 434.

154. In all such cases before the justice of the peace in and for the counties* above named, either party shall be allowed an appeal to the Circuit Court for the county in which the offense was committed, where they shall be tried de novo, and all such appeals shall be taken in such manner as is now provided for by law in other cases of appeals from judgments of justices of the peace.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 61. 1874, ch. 311. 1906, ch. 82.

155. Each and every justice of the peace of Carroll County shall file with the County Commissioners of said county on the first Monday of
