

majority of the Council; he shall report annually in writing to the Mayor and Council a detailed statement of the financial condition of the corporation, showing the several sums of money received and expended, from whom received and for what purpose, and on what account expended and to whom paid, and shall cause copies of said statement to be posted in not less than five of the most public places in said town; he shall be collector of all taxes levied by the said corporation, and shall collect the said taxes by distress or execution in such manner as the county taxes for Carroll County are now collected, and for that purpose shall have all the powers and authority that tax collectors of Carroll County now have; he shall perform such other duties and shall receive such compensation for his services from the funds of the corporation as the said Mayor and Council may prescribe or fix by order or ordinance; and he shall, before assuming the duties of his office, give bond for the faithful performance of his duties as such clerk and treasurer with security to be approved by the Mayor in such penal sum as shall be prescribed by ordinance, which bond shall be made to the said corporation and carefully filed among their papers, and recorded among the minutes of their proceedings.

1900, ch. 341, sec. N.

223. The Mayor and Council shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary within the limits of said town to preserve the health, peace and safety of the inhabitants thereof; to prevent and remove nuisances and annoyances; to suppress gambling; to prevent the firing of cannon, guns, pistols, fire-crackers and all explosive instruments or materials within the corporate limits; to restrain all disorders and disturbances; to suppress fires and the danger thereof; to make or cause to be made and repaired all necessary drains, sewers, culverts and bridges; to license public amusements, shows and exhibitions; fix the sum of money to be paid therefor, and to prescribe the mode of collecting the same; and to provide for the good government and police of the town; and they shall have power to enforce the observance of all such ordinances by fines, penalties and forfeitures, not exceeding twenty dollars for any one offense.

1900, ch. 341, sec. O.

224. They shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary to regulate or prevent the going at large within the corporate limits of horses, cattle, sheep, goats, swine, geese or any other brute or fowl or beast; to regulate or prevent the going at large within the corporate limits of dogs, and to provide for the killing of worthless, dangerous or annoying dogs; to levy a tax on dogs, male or female, kept within the corporate limits; to fix the rate of said tax and to collect the same from the owners as the other town taxes are collected, under the provisions of this Act, and may in default of payment of said tax provide for the killing of the dogs whose owners make such default.