

agreement essential in carrying out the purpose of this Act, and when said bridge is so built, the said Road Directors, together with the authorities of Hampshire County, West Virginia, shall maintain and keep the same in repair, paying for said maintenance out of the general road fund for Allegany County.

BRIDGE AT WILEY FORD.

1908, ch. 544 (p. 340).

43. The County Commissioners of Allegany County are hereby authorized and directed to levy the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) at the annual levy for 1908 of Allegany County for the purpose of joining Mineral County, West Virginia, in building a bridge across the Potomac River at some point which may be determined upon as most convenient, at or near Wiley Ford, South Cumberland, on the road leading from Cumberland to Winchester, Virginia.

Said sum so levied shall be entered to the use of the Road Directors of Allegany County, for the purpose aforesaid, which Road Directors are hereby empowered to supervise the expenditure of the same, and make any agreement essential to carrying out the purposes of this Act.

BRIDGE AT LUKE.

44. The County Commissioners of Allegany County are hereby empowered to levy on the assessable property of Allegany County at their regular annual levy for 1911, or at any subsequent annual levy, such a sum as may be found to be necessary for the purpose of joining Mineral County, West Virginia, in building a bridge across the Potomac River at some point which may be determined upon as most convenient, connecting the village of Luke, in Allegany County, Maryland, with the village of Beryl, in Mineral County, West Virginia.

45. Said sum so levied shall be entered to the use of the Road Directors for Allegany County, for the purpose aforesaid, which Road Directors are hereby empowered to supervise the expenditure of the same and make any agreement essential to carrying out the purpose of this Act.

1910, ch. 751, sec. 3 (p. 515).

46. Said bridge shall be constructed and said sum assessed and appropriated to the use of the Road Directors for Allegany County only upon the condition that the proper authorities of Mineral County, West Virginia, enter into an agreement with said Road Directors that they will pay one-half of the costs of construction of said bridge, and that they will further pay one-half of the costs of repairing and maintaining said bridge.
