

Lambert to the division between said J. Milton Fritz and said College, to the northeast corner of the land of said College to point of junction of John C. Buckey, said College and Fritz, then westerly with the lines between said Buckey and College, and Buckey and Jacob Fromfelter and others, to the Uniontown Road, then with a straight line west through the land of Mrs. Sallie Maynard to the garden fence of said Mrs. Maynard, thence to the said Maynard's outer gate, then with a straight line to the sycamore tree, the place of beginning; provided, however, that for all sanitary and police regulations the authority and control of said corporation shall extend for one-fourth of a mile in every direction beyond the aforesaid limits.

1900, ch. 519, sec. 4.

264. All persons who have resided within the said corporate limits of said town for twelve months next preceding the election, and who are qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, and all other persons non-resident of said corporation, but who may be otherwise so qualified and who own real or personal estate in said town of the value of at least five hundred dollars, shall, on the first Monday of May ensuing the passage of this Act, and on the same day and month in each and every year thereafter, elect by ballot one person for Burgess and five persons for Commissioners, each of whom shall be at least twenty-five years of age, and shall have resided in said town at least one year previous to the day of election, and be the owners of real or personal property, or both, in his own right in said corporate town, assessed at more than six hundred dollars.

1900, ch. 519, sec. 5.

265. The first election for Burgess and Commissioners under this Act shall be held by two judges of election, to be appointed by the Board of County Commissioners of Carroll County or the president of said board, and all elections for officers thereafter shall be held by one or more judges of election, who shall be appointed annually by the Burgess and Commissioners of said town, and in such manner, at such place, and after such notice, as by ordinance of the said corporation not inconsistent with this Act directed.

1900, ch. 519, sec. 6.

266. The judges of all elections for officers held under this Act, before holding any election, shall each make oath in due form of law, or affirm, before a justice of the peace for said county, that he will fairly and impartially act as a judge of such election; and said judges of election shall keep the polls open from one o'clock until five o'clock P. M., and shall, in the presence of such persons who may desire to witness the same immediately thereafter count the ballots, announce the result, and make and sign a written certificate thereof, which they shall deliver to the clerk of said town.
