

1904, ch. 256, sec. 16.

370. Any person who shall pay his or her taxes levied as aforesaid within thirty days after the date of such levy shall be entitled to a discount of five per centum thereon, which discount shall be allowed to the treasurer in the settlement of his account with the Mayor and Common Council.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 17. 1908, ch. 232, sec. 17 (p. 705).

371. All taxes levied as aforesaid shall bear interest after four months from the date of such levy, and the bailiff shall pay over all levies placed in his hands for collection within four months after receipt of said list, and shall, every thirty days, pay over so much as may have been collected by him, and upon his failure to do so his bond shall be put in suit.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 18.

372. The bailiff shall be appointed from among the inhabitants of said town qualified to vote for the Mayor and Common Council; provided, however, that the said Mayor and Common Council may appoint the constable of the election district in which said town is located, if he be a resident of said town or will reside therein after his appointment. Before entering upon the duties of his office he shall make oath before a justice of the peace for Carroll County that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by this Act of incorporation and the by-laws and ordinances of said Mayor and Common Council, and shall execute to the Mayor and Common Council a bond, with good and sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by said Mayor and Common Council, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned that he will well and faithfully perform the duties of said office in all things appertaining thereto, according to law and the ordinances of said Mayor and Common Council, and shall well and truly collect and pay over to the treasurer of said corporation all taxes levied by them and placed in his hands for collection, and all other sums of money that may be received by him for the use of said corporation.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 19.

373. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the Mayor and Common Council, and he shall perform such duties as they shall direct, shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose is vested with the same power and authority as any constable now has under the laws of the State; and it shall be his duty to inform on all persons violating the ordinances of the town or the laws of the State, and have process issued for their arrest, and to arrest without warrant all persons who, in his view, shall violate said laws or ordinances, and shall receive the same fees for arrest and execution of process issued by a justice as are allowed to constables under the laws of this State.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 20.

374. The treasurer shall be appointed from among the citizens of said town qualified to vote for Mayor and Common Council, and before
