

1912, ch. 464, sec. 4.

494. Any person or persons, firm or corporation who shall engage in the business of loaning money upon personal property and shall charge therefor under any pretext whatsoever any sum in excess of the usual legal rate of interest without first taking out a pawnbroker's license shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars for the first offense and by a like fine and also by imprisonment in jail for thirty days for the second and each subsequent offense against the provisions of this statute. Any licensed pawnbroker who shall in any way or by any subterfuge or device violate any of the provisions of this statute upon trial and conviction shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars for the first offense and a like fine and also by imprisonment in jail for thirty days for a second and each subsequent offense. One-half of the fine hereby imposed shall be paid to the informer or person causing the arrest and conviction.*

PLUMBING AND SEWER DRAINAGE.

1904, ch. 206, sec. 1. 1912, ch. 168, sec. 1.

495. That the Board of Health of each incorporated city or town in Allegany County, by and with the approval of the Mayor of said city or town, respectively, shall biennially appoint for each and every said city or town an inspector of plumbing for sanitary purposes, who shall be under the direction and supervision of and subject to all rules and regulations of the respective Board of Health by which he is appointed.

1904, ch. 206, sec. 2. 1912, ch. 168, sec. 2.

496. That said Inspector of Plumbing shall be a practical plumber, selected from among plumbers who are well informed as to practical plumbing and skilled in the matters pertaining to the sanitary regulations concerning plumbing work.

Said Inspector of Plumbing to receive as full compensation for his services a salary as fixed by the Mayor and Council of the respective city or town so employing him; said salary to be paid the Inspector of Plumbing by the city or town in which he is appointed.

1904, ch. 206, sec. 3. 1912, ch. 168, sec. 3.

497. That no pipes now in use or hereafter to be used to drain any matter, soil or liquid from any house, store, part of house or part of store or any building or part of building whatsoever into any well, sink, sewer or other outlet whatsoever for the conducting or reception of any substance except pure water, or into a sewer, private or public, or any stream, river or creek in Allegany County, shall be put up, constructed, altered or repaired, without first obtaining a permit therefor from the Board of Health of the said city or town in which the work is to be constructed or

*Sec. 5 of ch. 464, 1912, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.