

taxes of Carroll County now have; he shall, immediately upon the collection of any moneys for taxes, pay the same over to the clerk and treasurer of the corporation, and he shall be subject to suit on his bond and criminal prosecution as the tax collectors of Carroll County now are, and shall receive such compensation for his services in collecting said taxes as shall be by ordinance of said corporation provided.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 160. 1884, ch. 509.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 161. 1884, ch. 509.

423. The Burgess of said town, by virtue of his office, for municipal purposes and preserving the peace, shall have all the powers of the justice of the peace; he shall see that the laws and ordinances of the corporation are duly executed; he may require any officer of the corporation entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of moneys of the corporation to submit to him a statement of such officer's account as often as said Burgess or Commissioners may deem necessary; he shall report annually in writing to the Commissioners the general condition of the town, with the moneys received and expended, which report shall be posted up in not less than two of the most public places of the town; he shall sign all laws and ordinances passed by the commissioners, with his reason in case of refusal to sign; and if said law or ordinance so unsigned by him be again put upon its passage and receive the votes of four-fifths of the Commissioners, it shall become a law without the approval of the Burgess.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 162. 1884, ch. 509.

424. All other officers or assistants to officers necessary to execute the powers of said corporation shall be provided and appointed as by ordinance of the Burgess and Commissioners shall be directed.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 163. 1884, ch. 509.

425. All moneys arising from taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by this subtitle of this Article or ordinance of the Burgess and Commissioners, shall be appropriated only to such uses of said corporation as may by order or ordinance be directed.

*Sec. 2, ch. 266, 1927, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
