

and county taxes. On all taxes remaining unpaid for sixty days after the same shall have been levied, the treasurer shall charge and collect interest from the date of the levy at the rate of six per centum per annum, to be accounted for with the tax.

1900, ch. 206, sec. 187.

470. The Mayor and Common Council are authorized to provide by ordinance for the manner in which bonds hereafter to be issued shall be sold, and in what manner the records of same shall be kept.

1900, ch. 206, sec. 187A.

471. The Mayor and Common Council shall also be empowered to borrow a sum of money not exceeding five hundred dollars, whenever the treasury shall be so far depleted that the treasurer is unable to meet current obligations; such sum of money, however, must not be borrowed for a longer period than six months, and the obligation must be cancelled immediately after a sufficient amount of taxes have been collected to do so; such payment, however, must in nowise interfere with the satisfaction of interest-payments on any bond that may have or hereafter be issued by the town.

PROPERTY OF THE

CODIFICATION OF ORDINANCES.

1900, ch. 206, sec. 188.

472. Said Mayor and Common Council may provide by ordinance for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may hereafter be passed by it, and for the printing of such codification thereof; and the printed copy thereof issued by authority and under the sanction of said body shall be legal evidence of the passage of said ordinance and the contents thereof in any court of law or equity in this State.

STATE OF MARYLAND

LAYING OUT, OPENING AND EXTENDING STREETS.

1900, ch. 206, sec. 189.

473. The Mayor and Common Council shall have power to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, or relocating of any street or alley, or parts thereof within the city, which, in their opinion, the public welfare or convenience may require to provide for ascertaining whether any and what amount in value of damage will be caused thereby, for which the owner or possessor of any property through which said street or alley-way may pass ought to be compensated by the appointment of commissioners to assess the same; to provide for assessing and levying, either generally on the whole, assessable property within the city, or especially on the property of persons benefited, the whole or any part of the damages and expenses which will be incurred in laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening or relocating such street or alley, or parts thereof, and grading the same; to provide for collecting and paying the compensation awarded to any person before any such street or alley, or part thereof, shall be laid out or opened, extended,