

paid, and may distrain therefor as aforesaid, at any time after sixty days thereafter, if not paid; and the said treasurer shall keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the corporation in a well bound book, and shall pay out the same only on the order of the Burgess, or in his absence, of three of the Commissioners, and countersigned by the clerk, and shall annually report by a written or printed statement in detail to the Burgess and Commissioners, showing the condition of the finances of the said corporation, giving the several sums received and expended, and from whom received, and for what account, and for what particular purpose expended, and to whom paid; and the Burgess and Commissioners shall require the said treasurer to enter into bond, with approved security, for the true and faithful performance of his duties as such, which bond shall be liable as collectors' bonds are under the laws of this State.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 209. 1876, ch. 303.

517. They shall annually appoint a bailiff whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose the said bailiff is invested with the same power and authority that constables have under the laws of this State; and the said bailiff shall enter into bond, with approved security, for the true and faithful performance of his duty as bailiff, which bond shall be liable as constables' bonds are under the laws of this State.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 210. 1876, ch. 303.

518. Three of said Commissioners, or the Burgess and two of said Commissioners, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but no ordinance shall be enforced unless the same shall have been passed by three affirmative votes; and a neglect or nonuse shall not work a forfeiture of this subtitle of this Article.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 211. 1876, ch. 303.

519. The Burgess shall receive as salary ten dollars per annum, and the Commissioners five dollars each per annum; and may allow and pay such compensation to the clerk, treasurer and bailiff as may be deemed just and equitable by them.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 212. 1876, ch. 303.

520. The Burgess and Commissioners may impose such fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of the laws and ordinances as they may think proper, not exceeding the sum of ten dollars for any one offense; and may pass all laws and ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 7, sec. 213. 1876, ch. 303.

521. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by the ordinances of the said Burgess and Commissioners shall be recovered before the Burgess
