

1904, ch. 206, sec. 42. 1912, ch. 168, sec. 42.

518. That a master plumber be appointed by the Mayor of each said incorporated city or town in Allegany County as a member of the present Board of Health, and that a master plumber be one of the Board of Health hereafter appointed from time to time, but in no case shall the Inspector of Plumbing be a member of the Board of Health, provided that nothing in this section shall tend to change the membership of a Board of Health, or add an additional member thereto, where such Board of Health is already provided for and its membership specified by charter of said incorporated city or town in Allegany County.

1912, ch. 168, sec. 44.

519. That the Board of Health of the respective incorporated city or town in Allegany County are further empowered and are hereby directed to make such regulations for the control of sanitary plumbing work as in their judgment is necessary for the proper carrying out the provisions of this Act, and for the protection of the health of the citizens of the said town or city. Such regulations as above provided shall deal in detail with plumbing work, as to weight of pipe, size and kind of pipe, etc.

1912, ch. 168, sec. 45.

520. That the regulations issued by the Board of Health of any incorporated city or town in Allegany County shall have the same force as the provisions of this Act, and violations shall be punished as provided for in Section 501 of this Article.

RACING COMMISSION.*

1906, ch. 493, sec. 1.

521. Lloyd Lowndes, James W. Thomas, Vitus Rossworm, John H. Holzshu and Johnson R. Morgan and their successors in office are hereby appointed commissioners to regulate and license horse racing in Allegany County.

1906, ch. 493, sec. 2.

522. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to make or sell a book or pool on the result of any horse racing in Allegany County without first being duly licensed by the commissioners provided for by this Act.

1906, ch. 493, sec. 3.

523. Said Commissioners shall not grant a license to any person or corporation to conduct, or manage horse racing, or to make or sell a book or pool on the result of such racing unless such person or corporation shall be duly licensed therefor as provided in this Act.

*See Art. 78B of Annotated Code (1924 edition) for general law relating to racing.
