CECILTON.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 55. 1882, ch. 408.

55. The inhabitants of the town of Cecilton are a corporation by the name of "The President and Commissioners of the town of Cecilton," and by that name shall have perpetual succession; may sue and be sued; may purchase, hold and dispose of real, personal and mixed property for the use and benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 56. 1882, ch. 408.

56. Said Commissioners shall be five in number, and shall be elected on the first Monday in May, annually; all the male inhabitants of said town, citizens of the United States, above twenty-one years of age, who shall have bona fide resided in the town one year next preceding the election at which they shall offer to vote, shall be entitled to vote for said Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 57. 1882, ch. 408.

57. They shall annually designate the time and place of holding said election, and give at least two weeks' notice thereof by notices set up at five of the most prominent places in the town; and prior to the first Monday of May in each year, shall appoint some person to act as judge of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in the same manner as judges of election for State and county officers in this State are required to qualify before a justice of the peace, and shall open the polls at two o'clock P. M. on the first Monday in May in each year and close the same at six o'clock P. M.; and the five persons voted for at said election, who shall respectively receive the highest number of votes, shall be commissioners for the town for the ensuing year, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 58. 1882, ch. 408.

58. If at any election for Commissioners, it shall appear by the certificate of the judge of said election that any two or more persons voted for as Commissioners have received the same number of votes, so that there is no choice for an entire board, but a vacancy in one or more seats, if there shall be as many as three duly elected, the persons so elected shall assemble immediately, and having qualified as commissioners, shall proclaim a new election to supply the vacancies occasioned by the failure to elect, giving at least five days' notice of said election.
