

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 96. 1876, ch. 140. 1888, ch. 355.

104. Said bailiff may enforce the payment of town taxes in the same manner and with like effect as collectors of State and county taxes may enforce the payment of State and county taxes; and said bailiff shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office as such bailiff or collector, take an oath before some justice of the peace for said county that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of his said offices without favor, affection or partiality, according to the best of his skill and judgment.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 97. 1876, ch. 140.

105. The President and Commissioners shall have full power to establish the grades of the streets, lanes and alleys of the town, to pave or to construct walks for the sidewalks of streets of the town, to renew and repair the pavement or walks upon said sidewalks whenever in their judgment the same shall be necessary.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 98. 1876, ch. 140. 1908, ch. 545, sec. 98 (p. 718).

106. They shall have the power to open any streets, lanes and alleys in the town, or to extend those already open, and to straighten and increase the width thereof, and to remove all obstructions from those already located and used, and if they can not agree with the owner of the land or other property necessary for this purpose of such person being incompetent to contract or shall reside out of Cecil County, then such land or other property may be condemned for the purposes aforesaid in the manner prescribed in the Code of Public General Laws, and may assess and levy the damages and expenses thereof generally upon the whole of the assessable property of the town, or especially upon the assessable property of persons benefited thereby.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 99. 1876, ch. 140.

107. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by the President and Commissioners by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be applied to the use of the town as may from time to time be directed by the President and Commissioners, by whom an annual statement of receipts and disbursements shall be made, and be open for the inspection of the citizens of the town; all such fines, penalties and forfeitures may be recovered before a justice of the peace in the same manner as fines, penalties and forfeitures are now recovered by law; and for the non-payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures, the offender shall be committed to the lockup or jail of the town for a period not exceeding ten days.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 100. 1884, ch. 443.

108. Any person guilty of riotous or disorderly conduct within the corporate limits of the town, or who may otherwise violate any of the ordinances of the town, shall be punished by fine or imprisonment in the lockup or jail of the town, after conviction thereof before any justice of
