P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 107. 1860, Art. 8, sec. 55. 1894, ch. 490. 1908, ch. 709 (p. 719).

130. The assistant treasurer of Cecil County shall after the first Monday in July in the year nineteen hundred and eight, act as clerk to the County Commissioners of said county, and shall perform all the duties imposed upon the clerk of said Commissioners in the transaction of the business of the said county; and the said Commissioners shall not, after the aforesaid date, pay any money or grant any compensation to any person for the performance of said duties of clerk, excepting such as may be paid to said assistant treasurer.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 110. 1882, ch. 62.

131. He is authorized and empowered to administer an oath or affirmation to any person filing in the office of the County Commissioners a claim against the county, or other paper to which an affidavit may be required by law, or by order of the Commissioners to any persons who are to be examined as witnesses in any matter before the Commissioners, and in all other cases in which he may be required, in the discharge of his duties as clerk to the Commissioners, to administer an oath or affirmation; and for such additional service, no additional compensation shall be allowed said clerk.

1924, ch. 298.

132. Before any deed for the conveyance of real estate in Cecil County shall be received for record by the clerk of the Circuit Court thereof, the person offering said deed for record shall submit the same to the clerk to the County Commissioners of said county, who shall thereupon make transfer on the county assessment books of the said property to the name of the new owner or owners thereof, and as evidence of said transfer, shall stamp upon the said deed his certificate thereof, and no deed shall be received for record without said certificate. At the time of submitting the deed to the clerk to the County Commissioners, the person or persons offering the same shall furnish said clerk with a statement of the buildings, if any, upon the land conveyed by said deed, and the price paid for the property. If the clerk of the Circuit Court shall receive for record any deed without requiring the provisions of this section to be complied with, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars ($50) for each deed so recorded.†
