

1918, ch. 141, sec. 5.

146. The said Board of County Commissioners shall on or before the 1st day of July as aforesaid levy upon all of the taxable property of Cecil County, and upon all property subject to taxation therein, the aggregate amount of the estimates, as hereinbefore directed to be made, after the said Board of Estimates shall have carefully ascertained all of the various estimates and fixed them in such amounts as they shall think or consider proper, the said Board of County Commissioners aforesaid shall levy the aggregate amount of the said estimates, and in addition thereto they may levy not more than ten per cent. of the said aggregate of estimates, which additional sum shall be added to the total of estimates, and the sum thereof shall be the amount of the levy, and no other sum or sums of money shall be levied at all. The said levy of taxes made as aforesaid shall become due and payable and shall be collected in the manner and at the times now fixed by law. The said ten per cent. of the aggregate of estimates, or so much thereof as may be levied, shall be for emergency purposes, and shall be dedicated and appropriated to meet any unexpected demand which may arise after the said levy has been made, or to temporarily be used to supply funds for some estimate when there is a deficiency of revenue to meet the same.

1918, ch. 141, sec. 6.

147. The revenue derived from all of the sources thereof shall be devoted absolutely to the paying and defraying the said estimates in detail, and the said ten per cent. of the aggregate of estimates, or whatever part of the same that may be levied, shall be used only for emergency purposes, and in no event shall any money be diverted from the estimate to which it is dedicated for any purpose.

1918, ch. 141, sec. 7.

148. The Board of County Commissioners of Cecil County shall not after the 1st day of July, 1918, create any obligation or liability on the part of or on the credit of the county which shall be a floating debt, and no temporary loan shall be made to pay any deficiency arising from a failure to realize sufficient income from revenue and taxation to meet the amounts provided for in the said list of estimates; but the Board of County Commissioners may temporarily borrow money for the use of the county in anticipation of the receipts of taxes levied for any year, provided that they shall not in the manner and for the purpose aforesaid borrow in the aggregate more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), and such sums so borrowed shall all be repaid and such demands fully satisfied on or before the 1st day of May, following the beginning of the fiscal year in which the said money is so borrowed, and the said Board of County Commissioners shall not borrow any money for any purpose between the said 1st day of May and the 30th day of June, or the close of the said fiscal year, and in case of any deficiency in revenue and taxation to meet the amounts provided in the said estimates, there shall be a pro
