

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 132. 1880, ch. 435. 1890, ch. 623, sec. 132. 1910, ch. 214, sec. 132 (p. 723). 1912, ch. 683, sec. 132. 1914, ch. 71, sec. 132. 1927, ch. 419, sec. 132.

173. On the fourth (4th) Monday in May, 1927, and every two (2) years thereafter, the duly registered voters shall elect by ballot a president who shall serve for two (2) years from said date, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and shall, on said fourth Monday in May, in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, elect two (2) Commissioners who shall serve for two (2) years, and until said successors are duly elected and qualified, and on said fourth Monday in May, and every year thereafter, there shall be elected two (2) Commissioners to serve for the term of two (2) years and until their successors are elected and qualified, and no person shall be entitled to have his or her name placed on the ballot or be voted for as a candidate for President or Commissioner of said town who shall not have filed with the said President and Town Commissioners, at least ten (10) days before the date on which is to be held the election for said President and Commissioners, a certificate, under oath, setting forth for which office he or she is a candidate and his or her qualifications therefor under the provisions of this Act, or any amendments thereto; and the President and Commissioners shall give ample public notice of any election to be held under this sub-title and at least ten (10) days before the date of holding the same.

1910, ch. 214, sec. 132A (p. 723).

174. The President and Commissioners of said town shall annually designate the time and place of holding said election, and give at least fifteen days' notice thereof by notices set up at ten of the most prominent places in the town; and at some meeting prior to the third Monday in May in each year shall appoint two persons, one from each of the leading political parties of the State, to act as judges of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in the same manner as judges of election for State and county offices in this State are required to qualify before a justice of the peace, and shall open the polls at two o'clock P. M. on the third Monday in May in each year and close the same at six o'clock P. M., and the person voted for for President as aforesaid at said election who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be President as aforesaid, and the person in number, according to the preceding section, voted for at said election for Commissioners for said town who shall, respectively, receive the highest number of votes shall be Commissioners, as aforesaid.

1912, ch. 683, sec. 132B. 1914, ch. 71, sec. 132B.

175. The provisions, prohibitions and penalties prescribed in Chapter 122 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1908, relating to corrupt practices at general and primary elections are hereby declared to be applicable to all elections held by virtue of the authority given in this Article, and to be applicable to the acts of all persons in connection
