

CECIL COUNTY.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 154. 1880, ch. 435.

204. If the inhabitants of the town shall at any time neglect to make an election as herein directed, the power of electing Commissioners shall not thereupon cease, but shall continue as though such election had been made; and the President and Commissioners for the time being shall remain in office until such annual election shall be held.

1890, ch. 623, sec. 155.

205. The President and Commissioners of said town are hereby authorized to issue proposals and make contracts to build or otherwise provide a suitable house for the storage of its fire engines and apparatus and other town property, and a place of meeting for said board at a cost not to exceed three thousand dollars, and may levy such special tax (beyond said thirty-five cents if necessary which may be levied under Section 196 hereof,) on the assessable property of said town as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and the next two sections hereof; provided, that the amount to be levied shall not in any one year exceed five cents on the hundred dollars of such assessable value, and in no event shall more be so levied than shall be actually necessary to pay the bonds to be issued under the next section hereof, and to meet the interest thereon.*

1890, ch. 623, sec. 159.

206. Said President and Commissioners shall have authority to contract for the lighting of the streets and alleys of said town, and they shall also have authority to contract with some responsible company, corporation or persons for a water supply for said town, and shall have full authority to make and prescribe all regulations, restrictions and penalties necessary and proper thereto; President and Commissioners shall not have authority in making such contract to bind said corporation of Elkton, to pay for said water supply a sum exceeding eight hundred dollars annually; provided, that the authority to contract for water as aforesaid, shall not be construed as giving said board power to build or construct a system of water works at the expense or on the credit of said town.

FIRE COMPANY.

1914, ch. 99, sec. 1.

207. The President and Town Commissioners of Elkton in making up its tax levy each year shall include two cents on each one hundred dollars in said levy, for the maintenance and equipment of the Singerly Fire Engine and Hook and Ladder Company, of Elkton, Maryland.

1914, ch. 99, sec. 2.

208. The treasurer of the town of Elkton is authorized and directed to pay over to the treasurer of said fire engine and hook and ladder com-

*Secs. 156-158, ch. 623, 1890, authorized $3,000 of bonds and repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
