

1896, ch. 210.

231. The Governor is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint an additional justice of the peace in and for the First Election District of Cecil County, in addition to those now required to be appointed by existing laws.

1906, ch. 4.

232. The County Commissioners of Cecil County are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint, in addition to the two constables now provided for by law, one other constable in the First Election District of said county who shall reside and have his office in the town of Warwick in said district.

POLICE JUSTICE.

1916, ch. 321, sec. 1.

233. The Governor of the State is hereby authorized and directed to designate one of the justices of the peace appointed in and for the Third Election District of Cecil County as a police justice, and who shall be a resident of said Third Election District, and who before he shall act as such shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), with surety or sureties to be approved by the County Commissioners, conditioned that he will well and faithfully perform and execute the duties and obligations of justice of the Peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or on account of criminal offense tried before him under the provisions of the Public General Laws, Public Local Laws and the ordinances of the Town of Elkton, which bond shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and shall be liable at the suit of the State for the use of the County Commissioners of Cecil County in case of default in any of its provisions.

1916, ch. 321, sec. 2.

234. The said police justice shall have an office in the town of Elkton in said district, where he shall attend from time to time as the business of his office may require.

1916, ch. 321, sec. 3.

235. Said police justice shall have the same jurisdiction in criminal cases as justices of the peace now possess and which may hereafter be conferred upon them by and under the laws of the State; and shall also have civil jurisdiction as other magistrates in said county. The said police justice shall have exclusive jurisdiction of and shall be required to try and determine all violations of the criminal laws, and all violations of the ordinances of the town of Elkton, subject, however, to the same right of election to be tried by a jury, notice of which must be clearly given by
