

1916, ch. 321, sec. 5. 1922, ch. 407. 1924, ch. 509.

237. The said police justice shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of twelve hundred dollars per year, or the proportionate part thereof, so long as he shall continue to act as such police justice, said salary to be paid by the County Commissioners of Cecil County in equal monthly installments, and shall be paid as full compensation for services as police justice; and no police justice shall charge any fee other than provided by law or receive any gratuity for making any commitment, granting any release, or the performance of any duty required by law in criminal cases, but the said County Commissioners shall in no case pay the aforesaid salary until the said police justice shall have filed his monthly reports as required by Section 236 of this Article.

1916, ch. 321, sec. 6.

238. If any police justice shall be unable by reason of sickness, absence, relationship or other temporary cause whatever to attend to his duties as such police justice, it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney for said county to designate and require another justice of the peace, to perform the duties of said police justice so sick, absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of his office, so long as the same may be necessary, and the State's Attorney shall forthwith certify any selection he may make to the County Commissioners of Cecil County. The justice so required to perform said duties as police justice shall receive the same compensation prescribed for said police justice, and shall be paid by the County Commissioners, who shall deduct the same from the salary of the police justice for whom he was serving.*
