

shall be no choice for President or no choice for an entire Board of Commissioners, if there shall be two of said five officers duly elected, the person so elected together with the President and Commissioners holding over (if any), shall assemble immediately, and, having qualified, shall proclaim a new election to supply the vacancies occasioned by the failure to elect, giving at least five days' previous public notice, posted as aforesaid, of said election.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 194. 1870, ch. 100. 1892, ch. 149, sec. 194.
1910, ch. 678, sec. 194 (p. 707).

291. If at the election to be held on the third Monday of March, 1911, it shall appear that less than two of said officers have been elected, then the board now in office, or any three of them, shall proclaim a new election, giving at least five days' public notice thereof, posted as aforesaid; in case of the failure to elect four Commissioners on the third Monday of March, 1911, the division into classes prescribed in Section 288 aforesaid, shall not take place until after the vacancies are filled; and, should a vacancy arise in any of said offices because of the death, resignation, refusal to qualify, removal or otherwise of the persons elected to fill them, the said board shall proclaim a new election to fill the same, giving at least five days' notice thereof.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 195. 1870, ch. 100. 1910, ch. 678, sec. 195 (p. 707).

292. Every President and Commissioner so aforesaid elected, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall take an oath before some justice of the peace of said county that he will diligently and faithfully, according to the best of his judgment, perform the duties of the position to which he has been elected without favor, partiality or prejudice; and a certificate of such qualification shall be made and returned by said justice to said board, to be filed and recorded among its proceedings.

1894, ch. 563, sec. 195A.

293. Said President and Commissioners shall annually, on the first Monday in April, appoint by ballot a treasurer, who shall not be a member of said board, whose duties it shall be to receive and receipt for all moneys belonging to said corporation, or to which it shall in anywise be entitled, to receive all fines and penalties imposed by said board, and to discharge such other duties appertaining to his office, as now or may hereafter be imposed by law or any ordinance passed by said board; provided, that before entering upon the duties of his office, the said treasurer shall annually give bond to the said President and Commissioners, with securities to be approved by said board, in double the amount of money which said board shall estimate will come into the hands of said treasurer during the term for which he shall be appointed, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as such treasurer; and the said board shall have authority at any time to require said treasurer to give additional bond or security, conditioned as aforesaid, when the amount of money in his hands, or to come into his hands during his term of office, shall be greater than
