

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 218. 1886, ch. 23.

321. The President and Commissioners shall have the power and authority for the purpose of providing for the expense of building the lock-up or place of confinement for the reception of offenders, already erected in the town, to levy an annual tax of ten cents in the one hundred dollars on the assessable property of the town, in addition to the tax provided for in Section 291, until said expense shall have been fully paid and liquidated.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 219. 1886, ch. 23.

322. The President and Commissioners shall, in their discretion, have the power and authority to borrow the money necessary to pay the expense of erecting said building, and to secure said loan by a mortgage upon said building and the ground upon which the same is erected.

1892, ch. 149, sec. 220.

323. Hereafter not less than two hundred and fifty dollars of the annual levy by the County Commissioners of Cecil County, for keeping in repair the highways in said county as may be levied or taxed upon the assessable value of real and leasehold property within the limits of said town, shall be annually turned over to the President and Commissioners of said town, by the County Commissioners aforesaid, and belong to and become part of the income of said town, to be by said President and Commissioners of said town appropriated for the repair and improvement of the public highways or streets within the limits of said town; and it shall be the duty of the said County Commissioners in estimating for any annual levy to ascertain what proportion of the said levy is applicable alone to the construction and repair of highways within said county.

ORPHANS' COURT.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 220. 1860, Art. 8, sec. 137.

324. The Judges of the Orphans' Court may appoint their crier, and the County Commissioners shall levy for his use a sum of money not exceeding one dollar per day for every day the register of wills shall certify that the said crier acted as such.

1920, ch. 103.

325. The Judges of the Orphans' Court for Cecil County shall each receive the sum of ten dollars for every day's attendance upon the session of said court, to be paid at least as often as the end of each and every quarter after the qualification of said judge, provided that said per diem shall not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars in any one year.*

*Sec. 2, ch. 103, 1920, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
