

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 242. 1882, ch. 212.

347. Said Commissioners, once in every five years, or oftener, if they think proper, shall appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value the property in said town in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 243. 1882, ch. 212.

348. If any owner of property assessed within said town shall feel aggrieved by the assessment so made, he may appeal to the said Commissioners, who may make such deduction from the valuation of his property as they may deem reasonable and just.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 244. 1882, ch. 212.

349. They shall have full power and authority, annually, to appoint a bailiff, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and for this purpose he is vested with the same power and authority as constables now have under the laws of this State, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the said Commissioners deem just.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 245. 1882, ch. 212.

350. The President of the said Commissioners, in virtue of his office, shall have and exercise within the limits of said town, all the jurisdiction and power of a justice of the peace, except as to the recovery of small debts; he may call on any officer of the town, intrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public money, for a statement of his accounts, as often as he shall see proper; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and report to the town commissioners at their stated meetings the general state of the town, and may call special meetings of the Commissioners whenever he may see proper.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 246. 1882, ch. 212.

351. Nothing in this subtitle of this Article shall be so construed as to take from the County Commissioners the control of the two public roads that run through the limits of said town, or to relieve the said County Commissioners from any obligation imposed on them by any existing laws to keep said two county or public roads in repair; or to impose any obligation on the Commissioners of Perryville to mend or repair said two county or public roads.
