

and credit of the said town or corporation, on short term, promissory notes of the town or corporation, signed by the President, sealed with the seal of the town or corporation and attested by the clerk; said notes to bear interest at a rate of not exceeding six (6) per centum per annum, and said sum, when so borrowed, may be used by the President and Commissioners for the purpose of refunding any floating indebtedness or for providing for the emergency needs of the town or corporation.

1920, ch. 243.

375. The President and Commissioners are hereby empowered to use any funds in hand which shall have been raised by any bond issue heretofore authorized and not required for the purposes directed in Section 374 for permanent street improvements, whether the same be constructed in whole or in part by the Corporation of Port Deposit; and the said President and Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to levy an additional tax of twenty cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessable property in the town of Port Deposit which shall be collected as other taxes in said town are now gathered, and the proceeds of said tax levy shall be used, first for the purpose of paying interest on the bonds issued under the authority of Section 374 and, secondly, for the purpose of providing a sinking fund with which to purchase bonds issued under said section or to retire the same at maturity and the said President and Commissioners shall keep said sinking fund in some National Bank in Cecil County which will pay a reasonable rate of interest thereon.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 268. 1874, ch. 216.

376. The President and Commissioners may, on application of any person holding a lot in said town, have the same surveyed and the limits thereof established by a committee of three of their own body, any two of whom may employ a surveyor for the purpose, and the expenses thereof shall be charged in fair proportion upon the holders of lots surveyed, and may be collected as other small debts; provided, that upon application for survey, the owners of adjoining lots or their agents shall be notified, if residing in the town; and if neither the owner of said lots nor their agents shall reside in said town, the notice of the time and place of making said survey shall be posted at the postoffice in said town at least twenty days before said survey.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 269. 1874, ch. 216.

377. The person making such survey shall establish permanent boundaries of the lots surveyed, and a certificate of the survey and bounds thereof shall be returned by the surveyor, attested by two or more Commissioners, and recorded among the office papers of the President and Commissioners, and a certified copy thereof shall be evidence of the lines of said lots.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 270. 1874, ch. 216.

378. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by the President and Commissioners, by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be ap-
