

The said bailiff shall also be ex officio collector of town taxes, and shall within the limits of said town have all the authority of a constable, and shall receive such compensation for his services as bailiff and ex officio collector of town taxes as may be fixed by the said President and Commissioners, not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars per month, for all of said services.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 300. 1862, ch. 151.

412. The bailiff shall give bond, to be approved by the County Commissioners, as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty as constable, and also bond to the Board of Commissioners for the faithful performance of his duty as bailiff, and as collector of the taxes, and for the faithful performance of such duties as shall be imposed on him by the ordinances of said Board of Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 301. 1862, ch. 151. 1912, ch. 455, sec. 301.

413. The said bailiff shall have the same power and authority to enforce the collecting and payment of town taxes as are conferred upon the County Treasurer of Cecil County for the collecting of State and county taxes by Sections 155 and 156 of this Article.

414. The President of the Commissioners and all other officers of the town, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, shall severally take the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of ——— to the best of my knowledge and ability, without favor, affection or partiality."

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 303. 1862, ch. 151.

415. The President of the Commissioners, in virtue of his office, shall have and exercise within the limits of the town, all the jurisdiction and power of a justice of the peace, except as to recovery of small debts; he may call on any officer of the village entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public money, for a statement of his accounts as often as he shall see proper; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and report to the Board of Commissioners, at their stated meetings, the general state of the village, and may call special meetings of the Commissioners whenever he may see proper.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 304. 1862, ch. 151. 1912, ch. 455, sec. 304.

416. The County Commissioners shall be relieved from the care of the roads, streets and alleys within the corporate limits of the Town of Rising Sun, and the care of the same shall be transferred to the President and Commissioners of said town, and in consideration of said transfer all the roads, streets and alleys within the limits of said village shall be kept in good condition and repair by the said President and Commissioners, and the said County Commissioners of Cecil County shall annually levy for and pay over to the President and Commissioners of said town a sum of
