

he shall execute to the State of Maryland a separate bond in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars as the collector of State taxes, which bond shall be approved in like manner as the bonds of collectors of State taxes under existing law; and he shall execute to the State of Maryland a separate bond in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, to be approved by the County Commissioners of Charles County, as the bonds of collectors of county taxes are now approved; both of said bonds shall be in the same form, as far as the same can be applicable to the office of Treasurer, as the bonds of collectors for State and county taxes, respectively, under Section* 81 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Revenue and Taxes," and they shall both be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles County. The said treasurer shall be subject at all times to be removed by the County Commissioners for wilful neglect of duty or misdemeanor in office, upon conviction in a court of law. In the event of the removal from office, death or resignation during the term of office of said treasurer, the County Commissioners shall at once appoint his successor, who shall qualify and bond as aforesaid, and so continue to appoint until a treasurer qualifies as herein provided; and such new treasurer shall take charge of and collect all taxes that may be in the hands of the late treasurer uncollected, and for which the late treasurer was responsible, and for such uncollected taxes, shall give a separate bond in such penalty as may be required by the County Commissioners; at the expiration of the term of any treasurer appointed or elected under this Act, he shall deliver up the office to his successor and all papers and books relative thereto; provided, however, that such retiring treasurer, by reason of removal other than by wilful neglect of duty or misdemeanor in office, shall have access to said books and papers for the period of twelve months after the expiration of his term of office for the purpose of completing the collection of all taxes collectible by him, for making a complete statement of the State and county taxes which may be in his hands uncollected, and to pay over to the parties entitled thereto, the amounts, respectively due thereon, which period of twelve months the said retiring collector is hereby given for the purposes aforesaid, and in which period he shall fully complete the collection and accounting aforesaid, and shall fully report to the Circuit Court for Charles County, all unreported tax sales which shall have been made by him, as hereinafter provided.

1904, ch. 190, sec. 4. 1910, ch. 354 (p. 742), sec. 4.

88. The County Commissioners shall provide and furnish the treasurer an office in the courthouse building, or in some other building, as near thereto as possible, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to keep his said office open daily, except on legal holidays, and shall attend for the transaction of business therein in person or by deputy appointed as hereinafter provided.
