

Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," relating to "Cruelty to Animals," shall apply to Charles County as fully as if repeated in this Article.

Secs. 241-245 repealed by ch. 496, 1902. Ch. 198, 1890, superseded said sections. See Annotated Code, Art. 27, secs. 69-70, and State v. Falkenham, 73 Md. 465.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 59. 1868, ch. 138.

98. Charles County shall be divided into nine election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, in each of which districts elections shall be held at the place which may be established therein for that purpose.*

99. The Board of Supervisors of Election of Charles County are hereby directed immediately after the passage of this Act, and before the first day of June, 1914, to divide the said election district of said county into two precincts, in such manner as in the judgment of the said Board of Supervisors of Election will be most convenient to the greatest number of voters in said district. They shall number one of said precincts "One," and the other of said precincts "Two," and they shall make known the boundaries of the said precincts by advertisement inserted in one or more newspapers of said county once a week for two successive weeks before the first day of July, 1914.

100. Immediately after the said Precincts One and Two shall be laid off and established, as directed in Section 99, it shall be the duty of the said Board of Supervisors of Election to label one of the original registries of the said original Seventh Election District "Original Registry First Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County," and to label the other of said original registries "Original Registry Second Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County," and then to strike from the original registry so labeled, as that of the First Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District, the names of all voters whose residences as recorded on said original registry are within the bounds of the new Second Election Precinct, and to strike from the said original registry labeled that of the Second Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District, the names of all voters whose residences, as recorded upon the said registry, show them to be residents of the new First Election Precinct. Those names shall be stricken off by drawing red ink lines through each of said names, and through all the entries relating to such name, but in such manner that the original entry shall remain easily readable; and in the column headed "Remarks," the said Board of Supervisors shall write or stamp opposite the name of each

*Secs. 60-61 of Art. 9 of 1888 Code superseded by general law governing elections and election districts. See Art. 33 of Annotated Code.
