

penalties and forfeitures be paid, with costs, but not exceeding thirty days.

1920, ch. 590, sec. 13.

130. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the preceding sections and for the preservation of the peace, health, cleanliness and good order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens of said town and to suppress, abate or discontinue, or cause to be suppressed, abated or discontinued, all nuisances and obstruction within the corporate limits of said town, the Town Commissioners of Indian Head may pass such ordinances and by-laws from time to time as may be necessary, which said ordinances and by-laws shall have the force of law and may be amended or repealed by the said Town Commissioners at their pleasure.

1920, ch. 590, sec. 14.

131. All ordinances passed in pursuance of the foregoing sections of this Act shall be recorded by the clerk in a well-bound book, procured by the said Commissioners for the purpose, and the president shall sign his name to all ordinances as recorded, and the clerk shall attest the same, and a copy of all such ordinances attested by the clerk shall, within five days from the enactment thereof, be posted in at least three public places in said town.

1920, ch. 590, sec. 15. 1922, ch. 33, sec. 15.

132. The said Town Commissioners shall, in the month of June, in the year 1920, and the same month each and every year thereafter, if they deem it advisable, cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within said town of Indian Head, or the corporate limits thereof, by their clerk, which assessment shall not exceed the assessment of the same for the county purposes, if the same be assessed for county purposes, and the said Town Commissioners may levy a tax thereon not exceeding twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property.

1920, ch. 590, sec. 16.

133. Any person may appeal from the valuation of the assessor made as hereinbefore provided to the said Town Commissioners, who shall meet not less than ten days nor more than thirty days after such assessment shall have been completed and remain in session from day to day as long as may be necessary to hear and determine such appeal, and they shall give reasonable notice of all such meetings and may increase or abate such assessments as they may deem best.

1920, ch. 590, sec. 17.

134. If, however, the Town Commissioners of Indian Head levy a tax as herein provided they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons charged and taxed therein, and shall cause to be affixed thereto, the respective sums to be collected from such person, and a war-
