

any purpose or be slaughtered within the limits of the said town of Indian Head; provided, however, that any person or persons may allow hogs to run at large within their own enclosure, which covers an area of not less than one-half of an acre, and provided, however, that the Town Commissioners may prohibit such running at large if same become a nuisance. Any person violating this provision shall be fined one dollar and costs recoverable as hereinbefore provided; if any animal or animals of any kind heretofore named, of which the owner shall be unknown or cannot be found, shall be found running at large in said town, the bailiff shall forthwith seize and impound the same, and shall give notice thereof, by notice posted in at least two public places in said town, and if the owner shall not within three days thereafter appear and pay said bailiff the amount of the fine hereinbefore named and twenty-five cents extra for each day in which the said animal shall be taken and impounded, the said bailiff shall sell same at public sale, and after deducting one-half the amount due on same, including fine, which he shall retain, shall account for the balance to said Commissioners; the said bailiff is hereby given the power, and it shall be in his discretion to take the same proceeding with reference to any animal or animals of any kind hereinbefore named, of which the owner may be known, and it shall be his duty to so impound the said animal or animals if the owner be known, or to institute proceedings before a justice of the peace as hereinbefore provided for violation of the provision of this section as hereinafter set forth herein. It shall be the duty of the bailiff, as far as practicable, to enforce this and other provisions of this Act as well as the ordinances enacted by the said Town Commissioners, as provided in this Act, and any wilful neglect upon his part to enforce either of them upon coming to his notice shall be malfeasance in office.

1920, ch. 590, sec. 30.

147. Whenever the said Commissioners shall decide that it is expedient that any road, street, lane or alley, as aforesaid, within said corporate limits shall be opened, widened and straightened, changed or closed, or make subways as provided in Section 129, unless they shall be able to make satisfactory contracts necessary for the same, or until the necessary land or easements in or over the same shall be donated for the purposes, they shall appoint three disinterested persons, residents of the town, to assess all damage done, suffered and incurred by the opening, widening, straightening, changing or closing of any such highway, streets, lanes or alleys, or the construction of any such subways, and any benefits or advantages accruing to any person by the same, or any one of them, as the case may be; the said Commissioners shall, within ten days after notification of their appointment, take an oath before the justice of the peace of the town that they will faithfully, fairly and without partiality or prejudice value and assess the loss and damage to be suffered and incurred by, and the benefits to accrue to any person interested in the property over which the highways, roads or streets, alleys or lanes are to be opened, closed, straightened, widened or changed, or such subways to be cut or constructed; and they
