

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 87. 1884, ch. 510.

158. Constables in the said counties shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them under the preceding section; and the said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in said criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the Circuit Court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

159. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of Section 157 shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the County Commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1918, ch. 21, sec. 1.

160. Each and every justice of the peace of Charles County is hereby directed to bring all his dockets and other official papers to the Clerk of the Circuit Court once in every twelve months, beginning the month of January following the passage of this Act and continuing every January thereafter, for the purpose of having said dockets and other papers audited by the Clerk of said Court to ascertain the fees earned by said justices of the peace of said county and the amount, if any, due the County Commissioners thereof.

1918, ch. 21, sec. 2.

161. The County Commissioners of Charles County are hereby directed to pay said Clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles County the annual sum of fifteen ($15.00) dollars as a compensation for such audit upon the presentation to said County Commissioners of a report of each and every justice of the peace of the county aforesaid showing the balance, if any, due the said County Commissioners as aforesaid.
