166. The citizens of said town of La Plata having the qualification prescribed for voters by the laws of this State, and having resided in said town three months previous to any municipal election, shall annually on the first Monday in May elect three male citizens, taxpayers of the said town of La Plata, who are assessed on the tax books of Charles County as owning five hundred dollars' worth of property within the corporate limits of said town of La Plata, who shall have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as the Town Commissioners of La Plata, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. Said Town Commissioners shall receive no pay for their services as such, and they shall continue to reside in said town of La Plata during their term of office; provided, however, that there shall be no election of Town Commissioners in the month of May, 1912, but that Philip E. Sasseer, William M. Howard and Thomas R. Farrall shall be and constitute the Town Commissioners of La Plata from and after the first day of June, 1912, until the first day of June, 1913, subject to the provisions of this Article or any part or amendments thereof, provided for the Town Commissioners elected for all other times than as herein in this section set forth, with power to fill vacancies occurring among their own number, as elsewhere in this Article set forth for the Commissioners elected as herein otherwise provided.

1912, ch. 770, sec. 94.

167. The Town Commissioners shall annually on or before the first Monday in April, 1913, give notice by hand bills posted in conspicuous places in said town of La Plata or by publication in some newspaper or newspapers published in said town or by both hand bills posted as aforesaid and by publication as aforesaid of the election to be held for Town Commissioners of La Plata in that year, naming the house or place to be selected by them at which said election shall be held, and the hours the polls shall be open and closed respectively, and they shall, at least ten days before such election, appoint three persons as judges, who shall conduct the election; the polls shall be opened at 2 o'clock P. M., and closed at 6 o'clock P. M., if any of such judges of election shall refuse or decline or be unable to act as such the Town Commissioners shall fill the vacancy. Should any of such judges fail to appear at the time and place for opening the polls and holding the election the remaining judge or judges shall
