

La Plata he shall forthwith issue process against the offender in the name of the Town Commissioners of La Plata to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such ordinance, and may hear and determine the matter as in other cases arising under the laws of this State in which he has jurisdiction, and shall receive the same fees therefor.

1912, ch. 770, sec. 114.

187. All fines and penalties, as well as all taxes collected under the provisions of this Act, shall be collected in the name of and for the use of the Town Commissioners of La Plata, who shall expend the same as in their judgment they may deem best for the purposes of the corporation.

1912, ch. 770, sec. 115.

188. The County Commissioners of Charles County, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all other county and State officers shall have, hold and exercise their respective offices in the jurisdiction of the Town of La Plata; provided, that such taxes for public or county road purposes as are levied by the County Commissioners of Charles County upon the inhabitants or the property in the Town of La Plata shall be expended on the streets and roads within the corporate limits of said town, under such rules and regulations as may be agreed upon or adopted by and between said County Commissioners and the Town Commissioners of La Plata.

See sec. 200.

1912, ch. 770, sec. 116.

189. The Town Commissioners of La Plata shall have the same powers that are now exercised, or that may be exercised, at any time by the State Board of Health of Maryland, restricted, however, to the limits of said Town of La Plata.

1912, ch. 770, sec. 116A.

190. The Commissioners of said town may purchase and hold any property, real, personal or mixed, that may be necessary for municipal purposes and dispose of the same for the benefit of said town.

1912, ch. 770, sec. 116B.

191. They shall have power to establish building lines in all the streets and highways in said town, or which shall hereafter be opened therefor, and to compel all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto, under such penalties as they may prescribe by ordinance, but no building shall hereafter be erected for the purpose of a stable or privy or for a place of confinement of any live stock within 100 feet of any existing public street or highway in said town. Any person or persons violating this last section shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense and the cost of prosecution, and upon failure to pay said fine and costs shall be committed to jail until the same shall be paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur.
