

districts in which the same is respectively to be used, printed immediately above the fac-simile aforesaid; and no ballot shall be counted which is not printed as hereinbefore provided and which does not bear the initials of the judge who shall officiate in the district in which the ballot is cast at said special election in the capacity of delivering the ballot to the voter; the said Supervisors of Election shall also furnish and deliver to one of the judges of said special election on the day preceding the date thereof a glass ballot box, of the kind used in said Charles County at the general elections heretofore held therein, in which the said ballots shall be deposited by one of the judges at said special election, the ballots cast at said special election in each election district shall be counted and tabulated and returns made out at the close of the polls, and the result certified by the judges and clerks to the said Supervisors of Elections of Charles County for the purposes of canvassing the same and declaring the general result of said special election, on Tuesday, the nineteenth day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, at ten o'clock A. M. said Supervisors of Elections of said county shall not later than the fourth Tuesday in April, in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen select and appoint two judges and two clerks for each election district of said county, to serve at said special election and shall duly notify them of their selection and appointment, said judges and clerks shall qualify in the same manner as now prescribed by law for the qualification of judges and clerks of election at the general election held in Charles County, before the date of said special election; one judge and one clerk in each of said election districts shall be selected and appointed by said Supervisors of Elections so as to bona fide represent each of the opposing sides upon the question hereby submitted and in the selection and appointment of such judges and clerks the said Supervisors of Elections, if required, shall make the same from a list of four names from each of said election districts, as presented to them by any organization which may be in the meantime effected to represent said opposing sides of the matter in issue at said special election. On the Tuesday succeeding said special election one of the judges in each of said election districts, who shall be designated by said Supervisors of Elections for the purpose, shall convey the returns of said special election, the ballot boxes, registration books and all unused ballots to the said Board of Supervisors of Elections, who shall meet as hereinbefore provided on said Tuesday succeeding said special election, at ten o'clock A. M., at La Plata, the county seat of Charles County, for the purpose aforesaid. The said Supervisors of Elections shall then and there tabulate and count up the return as made by the said judges and clerks and proclaim the results by publication in two newspapers published in said Charles County within ten days from the date of the canvass and tabulation aforesaid; but if for any reason said proclamation of the result aforesaid shall not be given or not given in the manner herein prescribed, such failure shall not affect the validity of this Act nor prevent the result of said special election from taking effect. The said Supervisors of Elections shall also certify to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for