

Charles County the result of said special election, and he shall forthwith file and record the same in his office. The judges and clerks of said special election selected and appointed under the provisions of this Act shall be paid two dollars per day, for the day or days in which they may respectively serve and any judge or clerk who shall refuse or fail to serve shall be subject to a fine of twenty-five dollars upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county. In case any judge or clerk shall fail to serve as such officer of said election the officer or officers of said election who shall attend shall be and is or are hereby empowered and directed to fill the vacancy or vacancies by the appointment of a person or persons bona fide representing the same side of the matter in issue as that representing the person or persons failing to serve as aforesaid; the polls shall be opened at nine o'clock A. M. and close at seven o'clock P. M. on the day of said special election. The laws now in force for the conduct of general elections in said Charles County and for the defraying of the expenses thereof shall apply in all particulars not herein especially provided for and the said special election shall be conducted in strict accordance with all the provisions and requirements of the Corrupt Practices Act.

1914, ch. 657, sec. 2.

206. If at the said special election there shall be more votes cast in said county "Against License" than "For License," then on and after the first day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, corporation, house, company, club or association to barter or sell or give away or otherwise dispose of, except as permitted by the provisions of this Act, any intoxicating liquors, and no license shall thereafter be issued for the sale of any intoxicating liquors as defined herein in said county or within the jurisdiction thereof; and any person or persons, corporation, house, company, club or association, who or which shall thereafter in said county sell any intoxicating liquors of any kind whatsoever as hereinbefore defined, or who shall give away or otherwise dispose of at any time, except at the private home of any such person or persons, in the way of private entertainment, and except as hereinafter provided (but no hotel or innkeeper shall serve the same to any guest in the regular course of his business as such hotel or innkeeper), and any person who shall solicit or receive orders for the purchase of, at any time and place within the limits or jurisdiction of Charles County, of any spirituous, fermented, malt, or intoxicating liquors as hereinbefore defined, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine for each and every offense of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and costs, or shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Circuit Court for Charles County, or of one of the justices of the peace of the State of Maryland for said Charles County, which said justices of the peace shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court of the